

SEND Workshops & Training Service

Self-Support Workshops

ABOUT US

The SEND Workshops & Training Service provides FREE practical workshops and peer support to parents and carers of children between the ages of 4 and 12 years who have been referred for assessment of their social communication need.

WHAT WE OFFER

- Themed workshops which aim to inform and equip parents and carers to help support their children's areas of difficulty.
- Advice and strategies to support communication.
- Advice and strategies to manage challenging behaviour.
- Workshops both daytime and evening.
- Information on support services available to families, including Early Help and wider POINT services.

HOW TO ACCESS

As a parent/carer, you can ask for a referral to be made by:

- Early Help;
- School Nurse/SENCO;
- GP;
- Social Care/Social Worker.

As a professional: you can make a referral direct to the service. Contact us to request a referral form.
